

T. E. Lawrence Society Symposium 1990

Jesus College, Oxford
22-23 September 1990

Organised and chaired by Richard Crowder

Programme

Saturday 22 September

T. E. Lawrence's Friendship with Frederic Manning

Nicholas Birnie, Archaeologist and a founder-member of the T. E. Lawrence Society

(Published in a revised form in the Journal, Vol. I, No. 2, Winter 1991-2, pp. 31-62)

T. E. Lawrence as Archaeologist

Dr Rupert Chapman, Executive Secretary of the Palestine Exploration Fund

(Published in the Journal, Vol. I, No. 1, Spring 1991, pp. 21-29)

T. E. Lawrence's Correspondence with Charlotte Shaw

Jeremy Wilson, Authorised biographer of T. E. Lawrence

The 1962 BBC Television Documentary

Malcolm Brown, Editor of the 1988 collection of Lawrence's letters, and formerly a BBC television producer who worked on two major Lawrence documentaries

(Published in the Journal, Vol. I, No. 1, Spring 1991, pp. 79-84)

Memories of T. E. Lawrence

Arthur Russell, Friend of Lawrence in the Tank Corps and a pall-bearer at Lawrence's funeral.

T. E. Lawrence and the Bodleian Library

A. J. Flavell, Assistant Librarian at the Bodleian Library, and organiser of the Bodleian's T. E. Lawrence centenary exhibition

(Published in the Journal, Vol. I, No. 1, Spring 1991, pp. 30-42)

T. E. Shaw and the British Power Boat Co.

Adrian Rance, Head of Cultural Services at Southampton City Council, and biographer of Hubert Scott-Paine.

(Published in the Journal, Vol. II, No. 1, Summer 1992, pp. 49-68)

Tale of an 'Arabian Knight', the T. E. Lawrence Effigy
Richard Knowles, Bookseller

Sunday 23 September

A Lawrence walking tour with Valerie Thompson, author of Not a Suitable Hobby for an Airman, and Lawrence of Oxford, a City Tour in the Footsteps of T. E. Lawrence