

T. E. Lawrence Society Symposium 1992

Jesus College, Oxford
5-6 September 1992

Organised and chaired by Peter Metcalfe

Programme

Saturday 5 September

First report from the Lowell Thomas Archive

Janet Riesman, Member of the History Faculty of the State University of New York, and Co-Editor of T. E. Notes

T. E. Lawrence - A Personal View

Jeremy Wilson, Authorised biographer of T. E. Lawrence

A Journey through Syria in Lawrence's Footsteps

Nicholas Lynch, Senior Research Officer in the British Civil Service

(Published in the Journal, Vol. II, No. 2, Winter 1992-3, pp.6-22)

The Mint – Illustrated

Wing Commander K. J. Harden, Head of Administration at R.A.F. Uxbridge

(Published in an abridged version in the Journal, Vol. II, No. 2, Winter 1992-3, pp. 44-60)

T. E. Lawrence - The Deceit of his Detractors

H. St. J. B. Armitage, CBE

(Published in the Journal, Vol. IV, No. 1, Autumn 1994, pp. 64-75)

Sunday 6 September

Critic's Forum - 'A Dangerous Man'

Jeremy Wilson, Authorised biographer of T. E. Lawrence, and Malcolm Brown, Editor of the 1988 collection of Lawrence's letters, and formerly a BBC television producer who worked on two Lawrence documentaries

(Malcolm Brown's contribution was published in T. E. Notes, Vol. IV, No. 9, November 1993, pp. 1-3)

T. E. Lawrence Materials at Oxford

Jeremy Wilson, Authorised biographer of T. E. Lawrence

(Published in the Journal, Vol. II, No. 2, Winter 1992-3, pp. 68-88)

A guided tour of Lawrence's Oxford with Valerie Thompson, author of Not a Suitable Hobby for an Airman, and Lawrence of Oxford, a City Tour in the Footsteps of T. E. Lawrence.